

Armine AlajajianT: 310.274.7100Associate*F: 310.275.5697Office: Los Angelesaalajajian@ellisgeorge.com

Armine Alajajian is an Associate in the Los Angeles office of Ellis George LLP.

Prior to joining EGC, Ms. Alajajian focused her practice on labor and employment matters, governance issues and education law, representing and advising clients in both the private and public sectors. Ms. Alajajian has also represented Labor Unions and Taft-Hartley Trust Funds in the entertainment, transportation and construction industries, including representing clients in federal and state court litigation.

Education

- University of California Los Angeles School of Law, J.D., 2016
- University of California, Berkeley, B.A., Sociology, 2012

Bar Admissions

- California

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court for the Central District of California
- U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California

Ms. Alajajian received her Juris Doctor from UCLA School of Law, with a specialization in Entertainment, Media and Intellectual Property Law. Ms. Alajajian served as Managing Editor for the UCLA Entertainment Law Review. While in law school, Ms. Alajajian interned for the UCLA Patent and Trademark Clinic, representing clients before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), and NBCUniversal's Intellectual Property division.

Ms. Alajajian graduated with a High Distinction from the University of California, Berkeley with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology, where she received a nomination for the Departmental Citation Award.