Nora Z. Naccachian is an Associate in the Los Angeles office of Ellis George LLP. Her practice focuses on litigation matters, including commercial contract disputes, business torts, and appellate issues.

Prior to joining EGC, Nora was an associate at a nationally recognized law firm where she represented both individual and institutional clients in high-stakes litigation disputes as well as corporate policyholders in a variety of insurance coverage matters. These matters included claims related to general liability, long-tail environmental liability, and toxic tort claims.

While attending law school, Nora served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Barry Russell of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California.
